

2019

IV EDIZIONE

Article 1 - Goals

The Associazione Culturale IL SESTANTE (after specified as A.C.I.S.) organizes the Lynx Prize 2019 dedicated to artists. The aim is to promote and endorse Contemporary Art, catching the audience attention thanks to the high quality and the international experiences of the attending artists.

70 artworks will be shortlisted across the following 4 categories:

- Painting (25 works)
- Photography (25 works)
- Digital Art (10 works)
- Graphic Art (10 works)

Art. 2 - Admission Criteria

The competition is open to artists of all nations and there are no age limits; the subject is free. In all sections the dimensional limitations, inclusive of all, are 150x190 cm (base x height). Polyp-tych is considered as "unique work", so its total size must comply with the above measures. Key selection criteria will be the research, the quality and the originality of the works (previously published artworks can be submitted as well). The winners of the first prizes in the past two editions cannot participate in the competition.

- PAINTING SECTION

Paintings made using any technique, media and support (oil, acrylic, gouache, watercolor, paint, enamel, spray, ink, etc.) are eligible.

- PHOTOGRAPHY SECTION

Analogic or digital photographs, photos including digital elaborations on any type of media (paper, metal, glass, stone, plastics, films, etc.) are eligible.

- DIGITAL ART SECTION

Works entirely created using the computer and works by photographic source, provided the digital intervention is structural, on any type of media (paper, metal, glass, stone, plastics, films, etc.) are eligible.

- GRAPHIC ART SECTION

Graphic works made using the following techniques are eligible: graphite, charcoal, pen, Indian ink, intaglio (etching, aquatint, drypoint, engraving, soft paint, mezzotint, carborundum), woodcut, linocut, silk-screen, lithography and works performed in technical related.

Art. 3 - Deadlines and conditions for participation

To speed up the procedure you can send a copy of the payment receipt to the following address: associazioneilsestante@gmail.com.

Art. 5 - Jury and Selection

The selection of the submitted artworks will be made by a judging panel consisting of 12 expert members. A commission, consisting of four members of the jury and coordinated by the curators, will make a pre-selection of at least 500 works that will be then presented to the totality of the jury in order to choose the 70 selected works. Selected artists will then be required to deliver their works in order to announce the 30 finalist artists.

The 70 selected works will be divided as follows: 25 belonging to the painting section, 25 belonging to the photography section, 10 to the Digital Art section and 10 to the Graphic section.

Among these, the jurors will elect a winner for each section. The 40 remaining works, not in the final shortlist, will be exhibited in at least one of the venues.

The jury's decisions are final and cannot be appealed.

Art. 6 Presentation and transportation

It will be artists' responsibility to ship or personally deliver every selected artwork. Artworks shall be framed and/or provided with everything necessary, ready to be displayed; in case those instructions are not followed artworks will not be displayed.

Artists are solely responsible for all arrangements and transportation fees connected to shipping to and from the A.C.I.S. and for insuring the artworks while they are in transit.

The A.C.I.S. will take care of artworks' displacement from one exhibition site to another.

Art. 7 Publication of the finalist artworks

The bilingual Italian/English catalogue, with ISBN code, containing the pictures of the 70 selected artworks along with texts of presentation, will provide also a description of the competition and of the locations hosting the exhibitions. A free copy of the catalogue will be given to every selected artist. The catalogue will be available for sale at the exhibition venues and also online, by request via email to associazioneilsestante@gmail.com.

In order to widespread artists' work the website will also provide a free low-resolution version.

Art. 8 - Awards

The 30 finalist artworks, shortlisted among the 70 selected artworks, will be displayed at the inaugural event in Trieste, Italy, then in Torino, Italy and finally in Ajdovščina, Slovenia.

The winning artwork of each section are conditional on the purchase by the A.C.I.S. as follows:

- Painting Section: prize of € 4.000,00 * to the winner.

- Digital Art Section: prize of € 500,00 * to the winner.
- Graphic Art Section : prize of € 1.000,00 * to the winner

*with the exception of any taxes under current laws (Awards recipients are responsible for any import taxes or levies payable on receipt of the awards in your own country).

The prize collected by the winner of each section is intended as consideration for the provision of the work. The A.C.I.S. will have the ownership of the winning artworks while all the remaining submitted works will remain artists' property.

Among the 70 finalist artworks, the commission will award 8 artists with the special prize "Be Art Builder". The project concerns the ideation and the creation of an exhibition tailored for each artist, in order to highlight, from time to time, the personal artistic search of every winner. In order to make the project successful, the Associazione Il Sestante will consider and make available any resource at its disposal, such as exhibitions, publications, contemporary art fairs and digital events.

Winners of the Special Awards will keep the ownership of their artworks. If a sale should be made the A.C.I.S. will withhold a net 30% fee commission, while the unsold artworks will be returned to the owners in the manner agreed.

"SOLO EXHIBITION" PRIZES (for artists submitting 10 works):

Among the 70 finalist artworks, the commission will award 4 artists with the special prize "Solo Exhibition" prize. The exhibitions will take place in Trieste, in one of the locations offered by LYNX Prize partners.

In order to emphasize the specific artistic research, the organization will pay particular attention to tailoring each project to each artist.

SPECIAL UNDER 23 AWARD (see the below chart).

The Organization reserves the right to increase the number of the awards. Any news on this matter will be reported on the official page at www.premiolynx.com.
